Various training programs are available to giving may not be emphasized. In Ghana, a significant number of children aged 0-5 years are enrolled in early childhood care and educational programs. However, the perception of nursery and KG as academic rather than as care settings, coupled with large class sizes might affect the effectiveness of the intervention.

Next phase would involve more schools and address challenges of pilot phase. EA scales and CLASS would be considered for assessment.